

Sermon Discussion Questions

Gospel Images // Psalm 133

- Share some of the stories your family tells when you're all together. Who has the craziest story?
- Do your children know your family's stories?
- Pastor Joey said, "unity is built on meals and memories." How has this played out in your family?
- How have you seen your family work to develop unity? How have you seen unity break down in your family?
- What about in Faith Church or other churches you have attended? What have people done to build unity? What has caused breakdowns in the unity of your church?
- Do you feel like Faith Church is unified? Why or why not?
- How do Communion and Baptism build the unity of the church family?

- Did you learn anything new about what baptism and communion do in the life of a church body?
- How does unity in the church family bring blessing, as Psalm 133 teaches?
- Are you contributing to the unity of the church, or detracting from it? What do you need to do differently?
- How will you approach communion and baptism differently after listening to this sermon?
