Renewed Strength // Isaiah 40:27-31

- How do you respond when you're weary and soul-tired – figure it out and move forward, sit back and do nothing, something else?
- Pastor Jeff said, "God gives us strength in our challenges." What do you tend to turn to as a source of strength other than God?
- Do you ever wonder if God's not really involved in the difficulties you're going through? How does Isaiah 40 remind us of God's knowledge? Pastor Jeff said, "God's ways may be hidden from us, but our ways are not hidden from Him." How does that bring you comfort?
- How does Isaiah 40 remind us of God's ability to create and sustain everything? Why do we tend to doubt his ability to care for us?
- God offers us his limitless strength. What do you do, practically, to rely on God's strength? How do we get strength from God?

- Pastor Jeff said, waiting on God means “to trust with calm confidence.” How do these reminders of God's knowledge, power, and care give you calm confidence in your trials and weariness?
- As you pray for God to take away difficulties, remember to also pray for the grace to persevere and grow in the difficulty.
- As we shared communion, Pastor Joey reminded us that “God comforts us in all our troubles, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God” (2 Cor. 1:4). With whom will you share the comfort and encouragement you've received from Jesus?
