Matthew 8:5-13 // The God Who Is Worthy of Trust

- Have you ever been in a situation where you had authority, but no power to do what you had the authority to do?
- What do we know about centurions? How does that understanding shape how you read this story?
- How does Jesus respond to the centurion's request? Why is that significant?
- The centurion's response to Jesus shows that he sees Jesus's authority. What does he understand about Jesus?
- Why is Jesus impressed with his response?
- What's the significance of Jesus saying the centurion's response showed "great faith"?
- How does the theme of "faith" show up in this story?
- Pastor Joey said the centurion's faith was "practical belief in a powerful miracle-worker." How is our faith different from the centurion's? How is it similar?
- When you think of the authority and power of Jesus, how do you respond?
- Is Jesus worthy of your trust?
