Matthew 8:23-34 // The God Who Rules Over Chaos and Evil

- Has there been a moment in your life recently, where in the midst of chaos, you cried out to God, “Please enter this mess!”?
- Why do you think we, like the disciples, are always so amazed when God actually comes through and does what we ask him to do?
- Are there times in your life where you struggle to believe that Jesus has authority and power over all creation, including spiritual forces?
- The people of the town preferred pigs to people. Are you ever tempted to put material possessions and interests above considerations for the people around you?
- How do you sense God drawing near to you in the midst of chaos? What do you think he is trying to reveal to you about himself?
- Who in your life right now might you be able to draw near to in the midst of their own chaos?
